Commissioner Boyd - He congratulated Commissioner DeGroot and his family on his second son joining the Army and he congratulated Commissioner DeGroot and his wife on raising such a fine individual. Last week, he worked with a local business owner to clean up a gas station in Klamath Falls and another one in Merrill. He worked with Dick Robertson of General Duffy's to work out some financing. He worked on some issues around how we came into ownership of our County parks.

Commissioner DeGroot - The reason we are having this meeting today instead of yesterday is that he was returning from Portland, his son Dylan joined the Army on Monday. He and his wife are very proud of his son for serving our country. He had the pleasure of doing so and for his son to do so has made him extraordinarily proud. We will continue to pray for him while he serves his nation. He is in Basic Training. This is a tremendous accomplishment for him and his family.
