

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

FOR USE OF FACILITIES

BETWEEN

Klamath County Community Corrections

AND

Klamath County Public Health

This Agreement is between Klamath County Community Corrections (KCCC) and Klamath County Public Health (KCPH) to facilitate the use of Klamath Homefront for individuals seeking safe temporary housing.

Terms of Use: KCPH shall hold units to provide safe temporary housing for individuals who need to isolate or quarantine due to a diagnosis of or exposure to a communicable disease.

Compensation: A total of $9,600 per fiscal year.

Unit 128 $400 a month

Unit 130 $400 a month

Access: KCCC shall maintain access to all units but will not enter specified rooms while occupied nor during cleaning unless it is an emergency. KCPH will work with KCCC staff or their designees to coordinate access to the rooms. When a room is needed by KCPH, they will notify designated KCCC staff about dates of use and emergency contact information for the occupant. All confidential paperwork will be kept by KCPH.

Property Damage: In the event of damage to the specified units, KCPH will be responsible for covering the financial costs of repairs. KCCC may decide to utilize a licensed contractor, County Maintenance or Community Corrections work crews to do the repairs and will bill KCPH for reimbursement.

Term: The term of this Agreement shall be from date of signature to June 30th, 2025

Termination: This Agreement may be terminated by either party giving signed written notice to the other party at least thirty (30) days prior to the termination date.
