10. Commissioner Reports

Commissioner Boyd: Been working with a group that is trying to help individuals coming out of rehab. They are coming up with ways to help raise the success rate for those individuals.

Commissioner DeGroot: Last week sat on a panel for Mazama High School business students, they presented business ideas, what a great group of kids. Is Co-Chair on the Klamath Community College Capital Campaign for the Apprentice Center Committee they are working on larger grants and things are moving along well. Had great meeting with Freemont-Winema National Forest Road Official and our Public Works director regarding keeping the forest roads open and maintained, what can be done as Washington DC is eliminating their road dept. will continue conversations when he is back in Washington DC next month.

Commissioner Morris: Been on vacation, thanks staff and colleagues for keeping things moving in her absence. Interesting fact, in Panama they close everything down and REQUIRE all citizens to vote.
